... .. Opposite Party/s

Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr. Manoj Kumar, Adv.
For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Madan Kumar, APP.

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY ORAL ORDER

3 13-05-2026 Heard Mr. Manoj Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

2. The petitioner is in custody in connection with Arrah Town P.S. Case No. 60/2026 for the offence punishable under sections 126(2), 115(2), 76, 352, 351(2), 351(3), 3(5) of B.N.S and 8, 12 of POCSO Act.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that this petitioner used to harass her and on one day, threw a piece of paper having his mobile number. When her mother tried to counsel him, he threatened of dire consequence unless she is married to him. Allegation is of the year 24.01.2026, along with his friends, he assaulted the informant's father. This led to the FIR.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that an exaggerated FIR is there, petitioner has no criminal antecedent, is a young person, if granted relief, he shall be giving an undertaking before the Court while executing the bail bond that he shall not have any truck and/or shall harass the girl/family members in any manner. Failure to do so, steps can be taken for cancellation of his bail bond. The further submission is that charges have been framed and is in custody since 26.01.2026.

5. In this case, the Co-ordinate Bench had issued notice to the opposite party no. 2 but as per the office notes, she refused to accept it. The same, as such, has been deemed to have delivered.

6. Learned APP opposes the prayer for bail submitting that he has harassed the girl a lot.

7. Allegation is grave against the petitioner and he made the life of the victim miserable. However, considering the fact that he has remained in custody since 26.01.2026, has no criminal antecedent, is a young boy, an undertaking has been given that he shall have no truck with the girl, charges have been framed, in that background, this Court is inclined to extend him the privilege of bail with conditions.

8. It is made clear that if in any manner, the petitioner or his family members and/or his friends come anyway near the girl and/or his family members, State shall be taking immediate steps for the cancellation of his bail bond.

9. Let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) each with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Exclusive Special Court POCSO cum D.J.S.J VI, Bhojpur at Ara in connection with Arrah Town P.S. Case No. 60/2026 subject to the following conditions:

(i) one of the bailor should be the family member/relative of the petitioner who shall provide official document to show his/her bona fide;

(ii) the petitioner shall appear on each and every date before the Trial Court and failure to do so for two consecutive dates without plausible reason will entail cancellation of his bail bond by the Trial Court itself;

(iii) the petitioner shall appear before the concerned police station every fortnight for six months to mark his attendance and at the end of the period, the certificate be submitted to the Court;

(iv) the petitioner shall in no way try to induce or promise or threat the witnesses or tamper with the evidences, failing which the State shall be at liberty to take steps for cancellation of the bail bonds;

(v) the petitioner shall desist from committing any criminal offence again, failing which the State shall be at liberty to take steps for cancellation of his bail bonds.
