CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

6 06-11-2026 Heard the parties.

2. The petitioner happens to be husband of the opposite party no. 2, who apprehends his arrest in connection with Bajitpur P.S. Case No. 63 of 2024, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 85, 352, 351(2), 3(5) of the BNS.

3. This Court, taking note of the dispute arising out of matrimonial discord between the husband and wife, referred the matter to the Patna High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, where the dispute was ultimately resolved and both parties arrived at an amicable settlement.

4. Learned advocates appearing for the parties fairly submitted that, pursuant to the order of this Court and in terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties, opposite party no. 2 started residing in her matrimonial home. However, despite the aforesaid development, the family members and the petitioner are not taking proper care of opposite party no. 2, which is the only concern for which she seeks further directions from this Court.

5. Having considered the submissions advanced and the fact that the dispute between the parties has already been resolved through the process of mediation, coupled with the terms of settlement placed on record, this Court finds that the petitioner has made out a case for grant of anticipatory bail.

6. Accordingly, let the petitioner abovenamed be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned ACJM-VI, Darbhanga in connection with Bajitpur P.S. Case No. 63 of 2024, subject to the conditions laid down in Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, with the further conditions that the petitioner shall take proper care of his wife
