learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Pakaridayal P.S. Case No. 493 of 2025, registered for the offences punishable under Section 191(2), 191(3), 190, 126(2), 115(2), 127(2), 308(2), 109(1), 118(1), 303(2) of BNS.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and have falsely been implicated due to political rivalry. They are the persons of clean antecedent. He has further submitted that the injury report is reserved.

4. On the other hand, the learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for bail.

5. There is allegation against all the named accused persons in the FIR as well as against unknown persons of having surrounded the informant and threatened for extortion of money. Specific allegation against the petitioner Dilip Patel is of taking the informant down from his motorcycle and specific allegation against Ram Janam Mukhiya is of assaulting with the butt of the pistol on the head of the informant. However, the injury report is reserved. Considering the fact that there is nothing on the record to suggest that any grievous injury was sustained by the informant and further giving the fact that both the petitioners have clean antecedents, I am inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Let the petitioners, as named above, in the event of their arrest or surrender within four weeks from today, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, East Champaran, Motihari in connection with Pakaridayal P.S. However, it is expected that the verification process would be done expeditiously without causing any delay.
