2. The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in connection with Triveniganj P.S. Case No. 321 of 2025 dated 22.06.2025 registered for the offence punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109(2), 303(2), 118(1), 352, 351(2), 3(5) of the B.N.S., 2023.

3. The prosecution case, in brief, is that on 21.06.2025 at about 8:00 A.M., while the informant was constructing his house, the accused persons allegedly arrived armed with deadly weapons, damaged the construction, abused and assaulted the informant and his son, causing head injuries. It is further alleged that they also snatched Rs. 5,000/- from the informant and a gold and silver chain from his son before fleeing the place of occurrence.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and have been falsely implicated in the present case. It is next submitted that there is a case and counter case between the parties for the same and similar incident which is said to have taken place on 21.06.2025 in which both the parties have sustained injuries. Counsel for the petitioners further submits that the injuries which have been found on the person of Arvind Yadav, Sunil Kumar Yadav and Ramkrishna Yadav have been found to be simple in nature though caused by hard and blunt substance. However, without admitting the guilt of the petitioners, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that they are ready to pay a sum of Rs. 10,000/- to the informant as financial assistance towards the injuries alleged to have been caused by them. Counsel for the petitioners further undertakes that the petitioners will not repeat the same offence in future if released on anticipatory bail and will also maintain cordial relationship with the Informant and his family members.

5. On the other hand, the learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for bail of the petitioners.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the petitioners and considering that there is a case and counter case between the parties for the same and similar incident and the injuries caused to the injured have been found to be simple in nature, let the above named petitioners, be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate I, Supaul in connection with Triveniganj P.S.
