As per the prosecution case, the informant states that nine named accused persons including the petitioner herein with their faces covered entered the house of the informant, started to hurl abuses and demanded rangdari of Rs.50,000/- or else the informant was threatened that his son would be taken away. It is further stated that all the accused persons including the petitioner and one Saurav Singh made an attempt to take away the informant's son. All the accused persons including the petitioner assaulted the informant and others causing injuries.

remained in custody since 19.2.2026, the petitioner is directed to be enlarged on bail in connection with Nowkothi P.S.
