3. The case of the prosecution, in brief, is that the petitioner, along with others, was allegedly indulging in indiscriminate firing. It is alleged that the petitioner fired upon the informant, which hit his knee.

It is further submitted that prior to the present occurrence, the brother of the petitioner had instituted a case in which the informant is also an accused, and there exists an ongoing dispute between the parties, suggesting false implication.

5. With regard to the injury report, it is submitted that the informant sustained the following injury: an oval round injury inverted in margin of measuring approximately 1/2' in diameter, lacerated wound everted in margin of size 2'x1' over lateral side of left knee joint. The nature of the injury has been kept reserved.

6. It is further submitted that there was no repetition of firing and that the informant sustained a single gunshot injury on the knee, which, according to the learned counsel, reflects the absence of any intention to cause fatal injury. The petitioner is in custody since 04.01.2026 and has criminal antecedents of three cases.

7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.
