charges.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in the present case. He further submits that the charge has been framed against the petitioner on 06.10.2025 and the petitioner has been made accused in the present case on the basis of confessional statement of co-accused person and petitioner has himself confessed his guilt in the present occurrence. He further submits that the police after investigation submitted chargesheet against the petitioner and the petitioner is in custody since 22.08.2025.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State, on the other hand, vehemently opposed the prayer for bail of the petitioner and submits that the petitioner carries eight more cases other than the present one but fairly submits on the basis of paragraph-3 of the petition that out of eight cases, the petitioner has been acquitted in two cases as well as the petitioner is on bail in four cases and the rest two cases are pending for consideration before the competent court of law.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, let the petitioner, above named, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additioinal Sessions Judge-IV, Munger in connection with
