3. On account of the incessant threat and illegal activities of the anti-social elements, the petitioner filed a title suit, vide Title Suit No. 24 of 2001, in the Court of learned Munsif-II, Begusarai, who, ultimately, allowed the title suit vide judgment dated 06.03.2003 and, thereafter, by preferring an Execution Case No. 4 of 2003, the petitioner, ultimately, got delivery of possession of the land on 11.04.2004 with the help of the Court Officers and the police authority. Thereafter, again, it was pointed out that, the anti-social elements are creating hindrance over the peaceful possession of the petitioner.

4. 5. The learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that till date, none of the administrative as well as police authority have taken any steps in order to protect the life, property and the land of the petitioner from the anti-social elements.
