CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SANDEEP KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

14 27-10-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Anand Kumar Ojha, learned senior counsel for the Electricity Company.

2. The present writ application has been filed for issuance of a writ of certiorari quashing that part of the order contained in Memo No. 3167 dated 27.03.2012 (Annexure-2), issued by Respondent No. 6, whereby the petitioner’s claim for compassionate appointment was rejected on the ground that he, being the son of the second wife of the deceased employee, was not eligible for compassionate appointment, as his father had not obtained permission for his second marriage. The petitioner has also sought issuance of a writ of mandamus directing the respondents to reconsider his case and grant him compassionate appointment without any further delay, particularly in view of the fact that his father died in harness on 17.04.2005.

3. Pursuant to the earlier directions of this Court, Mr. Anand Kumar Ojha, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the Electricity Company, has produced a letter dated 26.10.2026, whereby the petitioner has been granted compassionate appointment.

4. In view of the aforesaid development, nothing further survives for consideration in the present writ application. Accordingly, the writ application stands disposed of in view of the appointment letter dated 26.10.2026 issued by the Board.

5. The petitioner is directed to report for joining before the competent authority forthwith. The petitioner shall comply with the terms and conditions stipulated in the appointment letter.

6. A copy of the letter dated 26.10.2026, produced by Mr. Anand Kumar Ojha, learned senior counsel appearing on
