ORAL ORDER

2 19-05-2026 Heard the parties.

2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Excise P.S. Case No. 103C²/2026 for the offence under sections 30(a) of the Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant, on secret information, raided the house of one Suman Kumar as also raided the rented room of this petitioner, from which, 40.800 liters of foreign liquor recovered/seized. This led to the FIR.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though rented, it was an open room and nothing has been recovered from his conscious possession and only because he has one criminal antecedent of the same nature, implicated.

5. Further, learned counsel for the petitioner relied on the judgment of the Full Bench of Hon'ble Patna High Court in the case of Ram Vinay Yadav vs. State of Bihar reported in 2019 (2) PLJR 1089 wherein it has been held that an application for anticipatory bail in a case arising out of Bihar Excise and Prohibition Act can be maintained, despite the bar under Section 76(2) of the Act, if on the basis of allegation made in the FIR, no offence under the said provision is made out.

6. Learned APP opposes the prayer submitting that the recovery is from his rented room.

7. Taking into account the submissions of the parties and the judgment in the case of Ram Vinay Yadav (supra), as also that nothing has been recovered from his conscious possession, in that background, this Court is inclined to extend him the privilege of anticipatory bail with conditions.

8. Let the petitioner be released on bail in the event of arrest or surrender within a period of four weeks from the receipt of this order, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of learned District and Additional Sessions Judge
