ORAL ORDER

2 20-05-2026 Heard the parties through virtual mode.

2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Saraiya P.S. Case No. 92 of 2026 for the offence under section 30(a) of the Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that on secret information, the police raided the place but the petitioner managed to escape but 10 liters of chulai illicit wine were recovered/seized. Further, the house of Rita Devi was raided and there is recovery of 2.500 liters of illicit wine (altogether 12.500 liters). This led to the FIR.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that only to implicate, the escape theory has been assigned, nothing has been recovered from his conscious possession and the last submission is that he do not have any criminal antecedent.

5. Further, learned counsel for the petitioner relied on the judgment of the Full Bench of Hon'ble Patna High Court in the case of Ram Vinay Yadav vs. State of Bihar reported in 2019 (2) PLJR 1089 wherein it has been held that an application for anticipatory bail in a case arising out of Bihar Excise and Prohibition Act can be maintained, despite the bar under Section 76(2) of the Act, if on the basis of allegation made in the FIR, no offence under the said provision is made out.

6. Learned APP opposes the prayer submitting that the Police chased the accused but he managed to escape but there is recovery of illicit wine.

7. Taking into account the submissions of the parties and the judgment in the case of Ram Vinay Yadav (supra), as also that he do not have any criminal antecedent, in that background, this Court is inclined to extend him the privilege of anticipatory bail with conditions.

8. If, however, it is found that contrary to the statement made in paragraph-3, the petitioner has criminal antecedent, the present order shall become infructuous.

9. Let the petitioner be released on bail in the event of arrest or surrender within a period of four weeks from the receipt of this order, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Court of Exclusive Spl.
