ORAL ORDER

2 24-06-2026 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109, 352, 351(2), 303(2) and 3(5) of the Bharatiya
Nyaya Sanhita.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and the informant alleges that he was going to his old house on 4-3-2026 on 7:50 pm, when he was intercepted by the accused persons including the petitioner and they started abusing, on objection petitioner along with Harsh and Suraj, who were also carrying knife, assaulted him by knife causing injury on his chest and waist, while other accused assaulted the informant by fist and slap and snatched his chain, ring and bracelet.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant. It is next submitted that no doubt it is alleged that the accused persons including the petitioner assaulted him by knife causing injury on chest and waist but then from perusal of the allegation as alleged in the FIR, it would manifest that three accused carrying knife are alleged to have assaulted the informant. It is further submitted that there is only one injury on chest and the same has been opined to be simple in nature as such it cannot be alleged that it was the petitioner who assaulted by knife causing injury on chest. It is also submitted that petitioner is a young boy aged about 19 years and is a student and passed his intermediate examination from Upgraded Higher Secondary School Udaypura, Chapra Sadar, Saran. It is next submitted that if petitioner in the nature of allegation as alleged is sent to judicial custody, his entire career would get jeopardized and chances are bright that he may come in contact with hardened criminals. It is further submitted that had there been a specific allegation against the petitioner only of assaulting the informant by knife then the consideration would have been different. It is reiterated and submitted that informant suffered only one knife wound on chest when three accused are alleged to have assaulted but then injury has been opined to be simple in nature.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submits that he has instruction to make submission at the instance of the deponent of this case, i.e, father of the petitioner, that petitioner will never get involved in a criminal case in future.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner but then learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant is not in a position to rebut the submission of the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner that allegation of assaulting by knife is against Prince, Rahul and Suraj, but then informant received only one stab injury on chest which has been opined to be simple in nature.

7. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty-five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned
