ORAL ORDER

2 25-06-2026 1. Heard Mr. Bimlesh Kumar Pandey, learned counsel for the petitioners and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 190, 191(2), 191(3), 126(2), 115(2), 118(1), 109(1), 351(2), 74, 303(2), 352 and 79 of the BNS.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and the informant alleges that accused persons including the petitioners came on 17.04.2026 at 05:45 p.m. while she was sitting at her door and started abusing on the issue of handpump and chicken shed and on alarm her son (Hakim) came when petitioners with meat chopper assaulted her and her son on head causing injury and when they fell petitioners with chopper assaulted them on back causing injury while Sameer and Chand torn her clothes and Pappi Khatoon attempted to strangle her by rope and abused and snatched her chain and took away cash of Rs.5,050/- along with a box containing silver ornaments.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant. It is further submitted that petitioners and the informant are neighbours and they are having dispute relating to passage. It is next submitted that an altercation took place when both sides assaulted each other. It is also submitted that in order to given seriousness to the case, it is alleged that petitioners assaulted the informant and her son by meat chopper but then from perusal of the injury report annexed as Annexure-3 to the anticipatory bail application, it would manifest that the same records that the injury is simple caused by hard and blunt substance when meat chopper is a sharp edged weapon. It is reiterated and submitted that petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and are not criminals. It is submitted that if the privilege of anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioners, the petitioners will not abscond rather will cooperate in the investigation to prove their innocence.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners, let the petitioners, above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court where the case is pending/Successor Court in connection with Bettiah (Town) P.S. Case No. 240 of 2026, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C./482(2) of the B.N.S.S.

7. However, it is made clear that if the Investigating Officer of the case files an application before the learned Trial Court bringing to its notice that the petitioners, despite giving assurance to this Court, are not cooperating in the investigation, the learned Trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail bonds of the petitioners.
