ORAL ORDER

9 22-01-2026 In pursuance of the order dated 07-01-2026, the investigating officer is present in the court and produced the suicide note of Manisha Kumari in a sealed cover.

the investigating officer.

is dispensed with.

4. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

5. The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Dalsinghsarai P.S. Case No. 398 of 2024 registered for the Code.

6. According to allegation, the deceased was married to the petitioner according to Hintu rites and rituals. She was appointed as a teacher in the Primary School, Monika and she was residing with her husband in a rented house in village, Monika. The husband (petitioner) suspected her relation with someone else. Later on, the informant came to know from his elder sister who was residing in Kolkata that the deceased was shot dead.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been implicated in this case. The father-in-law of the deceased and one Lalan who supplied the pistol, have been granted bail. Learned counsel has also submitted that it is not a case of murder rather it is a case of suicide because the suicide note was recovered at the disclosure of the petitioner.

8. On the other hand, Mr. J. N. Thakur, learned APP has opposed the prayer for bail by submitting that in the postmortem, the fire-arm injury was found on the dead body. The petitioner is husband of the deceased who confessed his guilt and on his disclosure, pistol, whereby murder was committed, was recovered.
