3. Prosecution case in short is that on 11.03.2026, the accused persons came armed to the informant's kirana shop, assaulted the informant's wife, fired at her causing injury, and also fired at the informant before fleeing from the spot. The reason for the alleged motive is that the informant had earlier instituted a criminal case against the accused, who were pressuring him to withdraw the same.

From perusal of the FIR, it would reveal that there is no specific allegation against the petitioner, rather the same is attributed to co-accused, namely, Dinesh Yadav. Nothing has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. There is no compliance of Section 103 of the BNSS, 2023. Charge sheet has already been submitted in this case.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner.

7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, period of custody of the petitioner, there being no specific allegation against the petitioner and charge sheet being submitted, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
