ORAL ORDER

6 31-01-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned APP for the State.

2. In this case, the petitioner is seeking regular bail in connection with Govindganj P.S. Case No. 93 of 2025, registered for the offences punishable under Section 111 of BNS and sections 20(B)(II)C, 29 of NDPS Act.

3. According to the prosecution case, a truck bearing registration number BR06GC8705 was intercepted, which was being driven by the petitioner. 332.5 kilograms of ganja were recovered from the said truck.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated. He is under custody since 22.04.2025 and is merely alleged to be the driver of the truck wherefrom the ganja was recovered. He has also submitted that the procedure of search and seizure was not followed.

5. On the other hand, Mr. Shailendra Kumar, the learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for bail by submitting that the petitioner was arrested at the spot. The FSL report shows that the recovered contraband is ganja, which is in commercial quantity.

6. Considering the above-mentioned facts and circumstances, the petitioner doesn't deserve the privileges for bail. Accordingly, it is rejected.

7. The learned trial court is directed to take endeavor for early conclusion of the trial.
