matrimonial house within ten days. Today, when the matter is taken up, learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for O.P. No. 2 apprise this Court that O.P. No. 2 is presently residing with the petitioner at her matrimonial house and that the issues between them have, as of now, been resolved.

4. At this stage, learned counsel for O.P. No. 2 submits that certain conditions may be imposed upon the petitioner to ensure that he does not subject O.P. No. 2 to such cruelty in future.

5. In response, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner shall take all care and caution to ensure that no such incident occurs in future.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and taking into account the submission of the parties and that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Vaishali at Hajipur/Successor Court in connection with Hajipur Sadar P.S. down under Section 482(2) of the BNSS as well as the following conditions:

(i) One of the bailors should be the family member/relative/known of the petitioner(s) who shall provide official document/ personal affidavit to show his/her bona fide;

(ii) the petitioner(s) shall appear on each and every date before the Trial Court and failure to do so for two consecutive dates without plausible reason will entail cancellation of his/her/their bail bond by the Trial Court itself;

(iii) the petitioner(s) shall in no way try to induce or promise or threat the witnesses or tamper with the evidences, failing which the State shall be at liberty to take steps for cancellation of the bail bonds;

(iv) the petitioner(s) shall desist from committing any criminal offence again, failing which the State shall be at liberty to take steps for cancellation of their bail bonds.

7. However, O.P. No. 2 shall be at liberty to take recourse to appropriate legal remedies in the event of any further act of cruelty or harassment by the petitioner.
