CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PURNENDU SINGH
ORAL ORDER

4 17-01-2026 Heard Mr. Sudhanshu Prakash along with Ms. Supriya Kumari, learned counsels appearing on behalf of the petitioner and Mr. Ganesh Prasad Singh, learned APP for the State and Mr. Radha Mohan Singh and Mr. Abhijeet Abhigyan, learned counsels for the informant.

2. The petitioner seeks pre-arrest bail in connection with Kishanganj Mahila P.S. Case No. 19 of 2025 registered for the offence(s) punishable under Sections 126(2),115(2),77,308(2),352,351(2),351(3),3(5), of the BNS and Sections 67(A) of IT Act.

3. As per the allegations made in the FIR, the informant/victim alleged that the petitioner had made her objectionable videos and photographs viral by sending them to her home's mobile phone. It is further alleged that when the informant asked the petitioner to stop doing so, he demanded a sum of Rs.10 lakhs, and thereafter she gave him a gold chain worth Rs.2 lakhs.

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in the present case. From perusal of the FIR, it is apparent that both parties were in relationship for quite some time and enjoyed each other's company for years together and when the relationship developed between both the parties were major. The relationship was consensual. In this regard, he has placed reliance upon a judgment of the Apex Court in case of Naim Ahmed Vs. State (NCT of Delhi), reported in 2023 SCC Online SC 89. Learned counsel further submitted that informant extended financial support to the informant when she was in need of the same and when the petitioner later made a request for the return of the said amount, certain differences arose between the parties, which ultimately led to the lodging of the present FIR. Petitioner has clean antecedent.

5. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant and learned APP appearing on behalf of State vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of pre-arrest bail.

6. Having considered the rival submissions made on behalf of the parties, as well as, having perused the allegation made in the FIR, it is evident that the petitioner and informant were in relationship for quite some time and enjoyed each other's company for years together and when their relationship deteriorated, the informant lodged the present FIR. In light of law laid down by the Apex Court in case of Naim Ahmed (Supra), I am of the opinion that petitioner has, prima facie, made out a case to be released on pre-arrest bail.

7. The petitioner, above named, is directed to be released on pre-arrest bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned District Court within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kishanganj / Concerned Court in connection with Kishanganj Mahila P.S. Case No. 19 of 2025 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the BNSS.

8. The learned District Court is directed to verify the criminal antecedent of the petitioner and if it is found that the petitioner is involved in some other cases, as what has been stated in paragraph no.3 of the bail application, this order will automatically lose its force.

9. However, the parties in order to buy peace of mind,
can negotiate with each-other.
