Sections 126(2), 115(2), 117(2), 110, 352 & 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

3. The prosecution case, in a nutshell, is that the petitioner, along with other named and unknown accused persons, wrongfully restrained the informant's brother while he was returning from his shop and assaulted him with fists, kicks, and sticks. It is alleged that the assault caused a fracture to the victim's left arm and head injuries, following which he was taken to the hospital for medical treatment.

4. It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that the petitioner is in custody since 21.05.2026. Petitioner bears no criminal antecedent, as per disclosure made in paragraph No. 3 of the bail application.

5. It has been further submitted by the petitioner's counsel that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. From perusal of the FIR, it would reveal that there is no specific allegation against the petitioner, rather the same is against other co-accused person. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is general and omnibus allegation levelled against the petitioner. It is next submitted that parties are agnates and there is subsisting land dispute between them. So far as injury of the injured is concerned, the same is found to be grievous in nature.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner.

7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case and period of custody of the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
