ORAL ORDER

4 27-10-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State. Despite issuance of notice and receipt of the same personally by opposite party no.2, she has chosen not to appear in this case.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The petitioner is the husband of opposite party no.2 and there is allegation of abusing and assault.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that it is a peculiar case where the marriage had taken place with the opposite party no.2 in the year 1983 and there are four children out of the said wedlock. Petitioner himself is of 67 years of age, while the age of opposite party no.2 is 70 years and yet she has made allegation that petitioner is having illicit relationship. It is further submitted that the real fact is that the opposite party no.2 is still staying in the house of the petitioner and he has previously transferred 67 decimals of land in her name but she wants more land to be registered in her name. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent and undertakes to cooperate in the investigation/trial.

5. Learned APP for the State opposed the prayer for bail.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that petitioner and opposite party no.2 have several years of togetherness and petitioner is a senior citizen, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Court below where the case is pending/successor Court in connection with Complaint Case No. 157 of 2025, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 482 (2) of the BNSS.
