CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

6 28-04-2026 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned

APP for the State and the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under

Sections 498(A) of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the D. P. Act.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the case was referred for mediation and the mediation was successful and the dispute has been resolved amicably. It is also submitted that in terms of the settlement as recorded by the learned Mediator, the petitioner shall pay the amount within the time framed.

4. The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the opposite party no.2 fairly submits that he is not opposing the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner for the present in terms of the compromise arrived at but then submits that if the petitioner does not adhere to the terms of agreement after obtaining anticipatory bail, then what will happen, on which the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that petitioner is aware of the consequences which would entail if the petitioner does not adhere to the terms of the agreement as recorded by the learned Mediator. It is further submitted that if petitioner does not fulfill the terms of the compromise as recorded by the learned Mediator, in that event, the anticipatory bail if granted to the petitioner shall be liable to be cancelled.

5. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, the petitioner, above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, is directed to be released on bail on his furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs.2,000/- (Rupees Two Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court where the case is pending/successor Court in connection with Complaint Case No.179(C) of 2016, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 482(2) of the B.N.S.S.

6. The application stands allowed.

7. It is made clear that opposite party no.2 shall be at liberty to file an application seeking cancellation of anticipatory bail if the petitioner does not adhere to the terms of the compromise as recorded by the learned Mediator.

8. At this stage, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the opposite party no.2 submits that even opposite party no.2 shall abide by the terms of the compromise.
