3. As per the prosecution, FIR has been lodged against six named accused persons including the present petitioners against whom there is allegation that daughter of the informant became traceless from the house. Upon verification in the locality, it came to knowledge of the informant that the petitioners by enticing her daughter fled away. When informant visited the house of the petitioners then they have abused the informant and assaulted him.

4. Learned Counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and have committed no offence. Counsel also submits that notices have been issued in this case, but undelivered speed post has been returned. Thereafter, it has been treated as validly served. He further submits that on the previous occasion, case diary and statement of the victim under Section 183 of the BNSS have been called for as she has been recovered as well as the report of medical board. He further submits that the victim has not narrated anything adverse against the petitioners in her statement.

5. Counsel submits that the criminal antecedent of the petitioners is clean and they are ready to fulfill all the conditions whatsoever shall be imposed upon them.

6. Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioners and submits that upon perusal of statement of the victim under section 183 of the BNSS, it transpires that the said victim has not deposed anything wrong against the petitioners rather she has narrated that she alone went to Delhi and stayed at the house of her bhabhi (sister-in-law) and returned back to her house.

7. As such, in the present facts and circumstances of this case, let the above named petitioners be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of 4 weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand) each as mentioned in Section 2(1)(d) of the BNSS, 2023 to the satisfaction of learned Additional Sessions Judge-VI-cum-Special Judge (POCSO Act), Madhubani in connection with Sakri P.S. Case No.56 of 2026, subject to the conditions as laid down U/s 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023.
