4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that as many as 14 persons have been made an accused in the present F.I.R. with general and omnibus allegations of assault to the informant’s husband and her family. It has been submitted that the land dispute is admitted in the F.I.R. itself and there is a case and counter-case from both the sides and as a matter of fact, Annexure-P/2 Series contains the F.I.R. lodged on the petitioner's side and also the injuries sustained on the petitioner’s side. The injuries sustained by the informant and her family are in the nature of laceration, which have been opined to be simple in nature and caused by hard and blunt substance, as would be evident from the injury report annexed to the case diary. The petitioners have no criminal antecedent and they undertake to cooperate in the investigation.

5. Learned APP for the State opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail on the basis of allegations made in the First Information Report.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the general and omnibus nature of allegations arising out of case and counter-case resulting in injuries on both sides and further considering the simple nature of injuries sustained by the informant's family,
