CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RANJAN KUMAR JHA

ORAL ORDER

3 30-10-2026 Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the State.

2. The petitioner is apprehending her arrest in connection with Simri P.S. Case No. 220/2023 dated 27.06.2026 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 149, 341, 323, 448, 379, 307, 504, 506 of the I.P.C.

3. The allegation in the FIR is to the extent that on 27.06.2023, while the informant was constructing a wall, the petitioner along with co-accused persons armed with lathi, danda, and stones came and broke the wall and assaulted the informant and his family members.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. Learned counsel submitted that they are family members having house adjacent to each other. Even FIR shows that alleged dispute is on account of opening of window. The FIR version is nothing but an exaggerated version of a minor scuffle. Both the sides have sustained injury. As far as injury is concerned, after referring order impugned counsel for the petitioner submits that the nature of injury was not of such nature which requires to be referred. As per para. 3 of the bail petition, the petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

5. Learned APP for the State vehemently opposed the prayer of anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

6. Having considered the submissions of the parties and in particular the fact that the petitioner and the informant are neighbours, the genesis of the dispute i.e., opening of a window and the fact that the petitioner is a lady with clean antecedent, let the above named petitioner, in the event of her arrest or surrender before the learned trial Court, within a period of four weeks of the order, is directed to be released on bail furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned A.C.J.M-1st, Buxar where the case is pending in
