petitioner. It has been alleged by the informant that her daughter left her house in the morning but thereafter, did not returned. Subsequently, the informant received information that all the accused persons have enticed her daughter and kidnapped her.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He submits that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 23.02.2026, having clean antecedent. Counsel further submits that on previous occasion, statement of the victim as well as case diary has been called for. Counsel also submits that the petitioner is ready to fulfill all the conditions whatsoever shall be imposed upon him.

5. Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioner but fairly submits that on previous occasion, case diary has been called for in which statement of the victim under section 180 of the B.N.S.S as well as her deposition being PW-1 has been recorded and upon perusal of those statements, it transpires that the victim has adduced her evidence and she has not alleged anything against anyone.

6. As such, in the present facts and circumstances of the case, let the above-named petitioner be granted bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand) as mentioned in Section 2(1)(d) of the B.N.S.S., 2023 to the
