2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for the informant and learned A.P.P. for the State.

3. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 308(2), 109, 352 and 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

4. Three accused persons including these petitioners are said to have assaulted the husband of the informant. The reason behind the occurrence is said to be demand of payment of consumed sattu drink.

5. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that a dispute had taken place with the informant on account of which some verbal altercation ensued between the parties, which further escalated into some scuffle. It is further submitted that no offence under Section 109 of the B.N.S. would be attracted in the facts of the present case. Moreover, the allegations are general and omnibus in nature and the injuries sustained by the victim are simple in nature. It is pointed out that there is an unexplained delay in lodging the F.I.R., inasmuch as the occurrence is said to have taken place on 04.06.2026, while the F.I.R. was lodged on 10.06.2026. Petitioners have no criminal antecedent and they undertake to cooperate in the investigation.

6. Learned counsel for the informant opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail on the ground that the informant is a poor person who has been made to suffer on account of expenses of treatment of the victim.

7. At this stage, an offer has been made on behalf of the petitioners that they would pay Rs.5000/- (Rupees Five Thousand) each to the informant/victim as a help for his treatment expenses.

8. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the general and omnibus nature of allegation, coupled with the fact that the injuries are simple in nature, let the above named petitioners, be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned lower Court where the case is pending/successor Court in connection with Nasriganj P.S. Case No.185 of 2026, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 482 (2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023.

9. It is made clear that the learned Court concerned before accepting the bail bonds would ensure that Rs.5,000/- each
