registered for the alleged offences under Sections 111(1), 61(2), 3(5) of BNS and Sections 25(1-b)a, 26, 35 of the Arms Act.

5. As per prosecution case, the petitioner a member of a gang involved in land grabbing and other unlawful activities was apprehended on disclosure being made by the co-accused. A number of other co-accused persons were also apprehended with same allegation. Recovery of firearms and ammunition was made from other co-accused persons.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. Nothing incriminating has been recovered from the petitioner and only allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner has been working as a member of organized crime gang. Though, nothing incriminating was recovered from the person or possession of the petitioner, in order to justify the arrest of the petitioner, the police falsely implicated the petitioner under Section 111(1) of BNS. Learned counsel also submits that only article which has been recovered from the petitioner is mobile phone and no firearms or ammunitions were recovered from the petitioner. The recovery has been made from the co-accused persons at different places and petitioner has no concern either with the apprehended persons or the recovery
