CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY

ORAL ORDER

3 06-11-2026 Heard Mr. Ravish Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

2. The petitioner is in custody in connection with Sangrampur (Tetiya Bamber) P.S. Case No. 242 of 2023 for the offence punishable under sections 302, 304(B) and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act lodged on 13.08.2023 by the informant, Aashish Kumar.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that the girl was married to this petitioner and a male child was also born out of the wedlock but was always tortured for dowry. On the fateful day, information came about the death and as the informant went, saw the dead body with injuries all over the body. This led to the FIR.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he has already suffered by being in custody since 28.11.2023, has no criminal antecedent and if granted relief, he shall be diligently appearing in trial. He further submits that though seven out of eight witnesses have been examined, the prosecution has now come up with a petition for examination of his minor son only to delay the trial.

5. Learned APP opposes the prayer submitting that seven out of eight witnesses have been examined.

6. Considering the submissions aforesaid as also that the petitioner has remained in custody since 28.11.2023 and has no criminal antecedent, an undertaking has been given that he shall be diligently appearing in trial, in that background, this Court is inclined to extend him the privilege of bail with conditions.

7. Let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of learned District and Additional Sessions Judge-I, Munger, in connection with Sangrampur (Tetiya Bamber) P.S. Case No. 242 of 2023 subject to the following conditions:

(i) one of the bailor should be the family
