2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Phulwarisharif Police Station Case No. 187 of 2015, dated registered for the offence punishable under Sections 498A and 494 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The prosecution case, in brief, is that the informant was married to the petitioner in the year 2000 as per Hindu rites and rituals and out of wedlock a male child was born who unfortunately died after two days. It is further alleged that about two months before her husband assaulted her and threatened that unless she brings Rs. 5 lakh from her parental home, she would have to remain there, while he would marry with one

Anju Kumari

4. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case inasmuch as he has not committed any offence in the manner alleged. He further submits that the matter was sent for mediation by this Court vide order dated 21.01.2026 and final mediation report is on record (flag-‘M’). From perusal of the same it appears that both husband and wife arrived at amicable settlement and have jointly signed the agreement containing terms and conditions of compromise on 31.03.2026.

5. Learned counsel for the O.P. No. 2 supports the argument of learned counsel for the petitioner regarding amicable settlement arrived at between the parties through the process of mediation.

6. Considering the fact that the matter has been compromised and both husband and wife has arrived at amicable settlement before the learned Mediator and mediation report has been submitted by the learned Mediator having the terms and conditions of compromise, I am inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail subject to the condition that the parties shall abide by the terms and conditions entered into between them before the learned Mediator mentioned in the mediation report dated 31.03.2026.

7. Accordingly, the prayer for bail allowed.

8. Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within four weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-II, Patna, in connection with Phulwarisharif Police Station Case No. 187 of 2015, subject to the condition laid down under Section 482 (2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita.
