ORAL ORDER

3 06-11-2026 Heard learned Advocate for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Ara Mufassil P.S. Case No. 08 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 392 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Allegedly, on the given date and time of occurrence, while the informant was on his way to his village, some unknown persons riding on a Scooty and motorcycle intercepted him and snatched the Apache motorcycle and his mobile phone at gun point.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioner submits that the F.I.R. has been instituted against unknown miscreants.

However, during the course of investigation, two of the co-accused persons were apprehended by the police and the looted motorcycle and mobile were recovered from their possession. The apprehended persons disclosed the name of the petitioner as one of the accomplices. Save and except the confessional statement, there is nothing against the petitioner to implicate him in the present case. Moreover, the other co-accused persons, namely, (i) Ramashankar Paswan, (ii) Manjeet Yadav @ Manjeet Kumar and (iii) Monu Paswan @ Indrajeet Paswan @ Monu Kumar, who are carrying identical allegations and whose names have also surfaced in the confessional statement of the apprehended persons, have been extended the privilege of anticipatory bail. The petitioner undertakes that he will fully cooperate in the proceeding of the court. The case of the petitioner stands on similar footing, is the contention of the learned advocate.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State vehemently opposes the bail application and submits that the petitioner is carrying three criminal antecedents, besides his name has been figured in the confessional statement of the co-accused from whose possession the looted articles were recovered.

6. Considering the submissions advanced by learned Advocate for the respective parties and taking note of the fact that the case of the petitioner is based on parity with those of the persons, who have been extended the privilege of anticipatory bail and during the course of investigation no incriminating materials have been recovered from the whereabouts of the petitioner, besides his undertaking that he will fully cooperate in the proceedings of the court, let the petitioner, named above, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-VII, Bhojpur at Ara in connection with Ara Mufassil P.S. Case No. 08 of 2024, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 482 (2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 with the further condition that one of the bailors shall be the own/close relative of the petitioner.
