CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJIT KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

3 05-11-2026 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State and learned counsel for the informant.

2. The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in connection with Bheldi P.S. Case No. 257 of 2026, F.I.R dated 01.07.2026 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 118(1), 109(1), 303(2), 351(2), 352 and 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

3. According to prosecution case, that in connection with a land dispute, the accused persons variously armed, came to the informant's house and started abusing her. It is alleged that Ajmuddin assaulted the informant on her head with a lathi, causing injury. When her husband came to rescue her, Armaan Ali assaulted him on his head with a farsa, while the other accused persons assaulted him by means of kicks and fists, causing injuries to his eyes and face. It is further alleged that Ajmuddin snatched the gold chain from the informant's neck and tore her clothes.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that after the registration of the first information report by these petitioners against the informant and her family members vide Annexure-P/2, the instant case is said to have been registered alleging that the petitioners had caused injuries to the informant and her family members. It has next been submitted that both sides have sustained injuries and that, in the case registered by the petitioners, the informant and her family members have already been extended the privilege of anticipatory bail by this Court vide Cr. Misc. No. 62977 of 2026, subject to the condition that they would compensate the petitioners for the treatment received by providing adequate financial assistance.

5. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioners, on instruction, submits that the petitioners are ready to provide Rs. 7,000/- as financial assistance to the informant, who is said to have sustained injuries, which has not been opposed by learned counsel for the informant, with a view to putting the ongoing dispute between the parties to rest, as they are close agnates. Lastly, it has been submitted that the petitioners have no criminal antecedents.

6. Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail application.

7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, and taking into account the fact that the parties are agreeable to resolving the issues and have accepted that they would maintain peace and harmony, and further that the petitioners are ready to compensate them without accepting their guilt, this Court is inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

8. Let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the order, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate-1st Class, Chapra, Saran in connection with aforementioned P.S. Case, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of
