other accused persons are alleged to have assaulted the informant.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is a case and counter-case for the same occurrence. Nothing as alleged has happened. On account of some old dispute there was a free fight between the parties and both parties sustained injuries. After referring to the injury report he submits that the injuries sustained by the informant's side are found to be simple in nature. Further submission is that the petitioner is an 81-year-old person having clean antecedents.

5. Learned APP appearing for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

6. Having considered the rival submissions of the parties and in particular the fact that there is no allegation of assault against the petitioner, the injuries were found to be simple in nature and the petitioner is an 81-year-old man having clean antecedents, let the petitioner named above be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each of the satisfaction of learned ACJM-IV, Saharsa/concerned court, in connection with
