ORAL ORDER

APP for the State.

02. In the present case, the petitioner seeks bail in connection with Panapur P.S. Case No. 80 of 2025 registered for the alleged offences under Sections 126(2), 115, 109, 352, 118(1), 351(2), 303(2) read with Section 3(5) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

03. As per prosecution case, over some petty issue, the petitioner and other co-accused persons riding a motorcycle, opened fire from their pistols and abused the informant. The petitioner gave knife blow to the informant who received injury on his head.

04. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. The prosecution case is false and concocted. Learned counsel further submits that the allegation of firing is not corroborated by the materials available on record. The informant has not received any knife injury. The background of occurrence is apparent from the FIR and it appears that some altercation and scuffle took place over taking side on the road where the informant kept his mustard crop. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is having antecedent of three cases and is on bail in all such cases. The petitioner is in custody since 20.07.2025 and charge-sheet has been submitted.

05. Learned APP for the State opposes the submission made on behalf of the petitioner. Learned APP submits that the injury report of the informant shows a lacerated wound on left temporal region of size 2" x ½" x ½" and the injury is stated to be caused by hard and blunt substance. However, learned APP concedes that no significant abnormality was seen in the CT scan of brain of the informant and the injury is stated to be simple in nature.

06. Having regard to the facts and circumstances and submissions made on behalf of the parties and considering the background of dispute and nature of injury and further considering the period of custody of the petitioner along with submission of charge-sheet, the petitioner above named is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Saran at Chapra/court concerned in connection with Panapur P.S.
