4. The prosecution case, in brief, is that on June 3, 2026, an individual named Ratan Kumar visited the complainant's village claiming to represent IBL Finance Limited and offering a business loan of 200,000 rupees. It is alleged that the accused persons, including Ratan Kumar, branch manager Manish Verma, Lakky Kumar, and others, collected Aadhaar and PAN cards along with 10,000 rupees each—paid partly in cash and partly online via UPI to Usha General Store—from around 200 villagers under the pretext of processing fees.
