petitioners has submitted that petitioners are innocent and have committed no offence. They have falsely been implicated in this case. They have got no criminal antecedent. It has further been submitted that the persons who have received injury by the assault of petitioner nos. 1 and 2 have received simple injury whereas the person who has received injury by the assault of petitioner no.3 has received grievous injury which is apparent from the order of learned trial Court. It has further been submitted that prior to this petitioners' side had filed a case on similar ground. It has further been submitted that there was a free-fight between the parties wherein both sides have received injuries.

5. Learned APP appearing for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer of bail of the petitioners.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and in the facts and circumstances of the case as stated above, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners on bail. The petitioners are directed to surrender in the Court below within a period of four weeks from today and in the event of their arrest or surrender in connection with Chhatapur P.S. Case No. 46 of 2025, they will be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties of the
