CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

2 28-10-2026 Heard learned Advocate for the petitioners and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

2. The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in connection with Sultanganj P.S. Case No. 329 of 2026, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 117(2), 109, 351(3), 352, 3(5) of the BNS.

3. Allegedly, on the given date and time of occurrence, while the petitioners along with another accused person were consuming liquor and other intoxicating substances and playing vulgar songs, and when the same was protested by the informant and his son, all the accused persons brutally assaulted them by means of lathi, danda and iron rod due to which they sustained serious injuries.

4. Learned advocate for the petitioners, referring to the FIR, vehemently contended that the alleged occurrence is said to have taken place on 14.06.2026, but the present FIR came to be instituted on 16.06.2026. So far the injuries which are allegedly sustained to the informant and his son are concerned, upon medical examination, the same are reported to be simple in nature. To support the aforesaid contention, the injury report has been placed on record as Annexure P/2 to the bail application. The genesis of the occurrence is said to be a trifle, besides the petitioners are carrying fair antecedent and undertake that they will fully cooperate in the proceeding of the court.

5. On the other hand, learned advocate for the State vehemently opposed the bail application and submits that the petitioners have actively participated in crime and brutally assaulted the informant and his son.

6. Considering the rival submissions advanced by learned advocates for the respective parties and taking note of the delay in lodging of the FIR, besides the simple nature of injuries and the fair antecedent of the petitioners, let the petitioners abovenamed be released on bail, in the event of their
