ORAL ORDER

2 04-11-2026 Heard Mr. Sitesh Kashyap, learned Advocate for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Daudpur P.S. Case No. 200 of 2026, registered for the offenses punishable under Sections 109, 191(2), 191(3), 126(2), 115(2), 118(1), 117(2), 74, 352, 351(2), 351(3), 303(2), 3(5) of the B.N.S.

3. The allegation against the petitioner is of causing assault by means of farsa over the head of Rizwan Ali, due to which he sustained serious injuries. Besides, there is further allegation of assault and snatching of valuables against other accused persons.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioner, referring to the FIR, contended that, in fact, the parties have entered into a brawl on account of a trivial dispute, resulting into some unfortunate injuries. Moreover, the injury which is allegedly attributed against the petitioner, on medical examination, was found to be simple in nature. To support the aforesaid contention, the injury report has been placed on record as Annexure-P/2 to the application. There is a counter version of the present case being Daudpur P.S. Case No. 199 of 2026, which is admittedly at an earlier point of time. The petitioner is said to have been pursuing a B.Tech course in BFIT College, Dehradun, and carrying fair antecedent.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State vehemently opposed the bail application and submits that there is a specific accusation against the petitioner of causing assault over the backside of the head of the injured, Rizwan Ali.

6. Considering the rival submissions advanced by learned Advocate for the respective parties and taking note of the genesis of the occurrence, besides the simple nature of injury and the fair antecedent of the petitioner, let the petitioner above named be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or
