them injuries.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in the present case. There is a case and counter case between the parties. General and omnibus allegation has been made against the petitioner. No specific overt act has been alleged against the petitioner. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that there is land dispute between the parties. The petitioner and informant are agnates. It is next submitted that the injury sustained is found to be simple in nature. The petitioner is in custody since 18.07.2026 and has one criminal antecedent. Co-accused has been granted anticipatory bail by a co-ordinate Bench vide order dated 15.10.2026 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 73781 of 2026.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case and the period of custody undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.15,000/- (Fifteen thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Court
