CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

2 04-11-2026 Heard Mr. Krishna Prasad Singh, learned Senior Advocate for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Revilganj P.S. Case No.473 of 2026 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 118(1), 109(1) & 3(5) of the BNS.

3. The allegation against the petitioner is that he, along with one Bhanu Pratap Singh, assaulted the informant with an iron rod. Besides, there are further allegations against the other accused persons of assaulting the informant, resulting in injuries to him.

4. Learned Senior Advocate, referring to the FIR, primarily contended that the specific allegation of assaulting the informant on his forehead is attributed to co-accused Kishore Kunal Singh, who is not before this Court. It is further submitted that the injury report, as discussed and considered in detail in the impugned order, indicates that out of the two injuries allegedly sustained by the informant on his leg, only one has been opined to be grievous in nature. However, considering the omnibus nature of the allegations levelled against the petitioner and co-accused Bhanu Pratap Singh, it cannot be conclusively attributed to the petitioner that he was the author of the grievous injury. Moreover, the injuries are stated to be on non-vital parts of the body, and the genesis of the alleged occurrence is nothing but a land dispute. Learned Senior Advocate further submitted that the previous enmity between the parties is evident from the fact that the cousin of accused Kishore Kunal Singh had earlier instituted Bairiya P.S. Case No. 319 of 2025, and the present case is stated to be a retaliatory measure in response thereto. It is lastly submitted that although the petitioner has one criminal antecedent, the said case was also instituted by the present informant, in which the petitioner is already on bail. The petitioner undertakes to fully cooperate in the proceedings of the Court.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State vehemently opposes the bail application and submits that the petitioner is said to be author of the grievous injury.

6. Considering the rival submissions advanced by learned Senior Advocate/Advocate for the respective parties and taking note of the genesis of the occurrence coupled with the fact that the weapon used and the injury sustained to the non-vital part, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Saran at Chapra in connection with Revilganj P.S. Case No.473 of 2026, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 482(2) of the BNSS, with further condition that one of the bailors shall be the own/close family members of the petitioner.
