CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

2 28-10-2026 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Adapur P.S. Case No. 281 of 2025, for the alleged offences, under Sections 80/61(2), 3(5) of BNS and ¾ of Dowry Act, to the satisfaction court of Learned S.D.J.M., Raxaul at Motihari, East Champaran.

3. The prosecution case, in brief, is that the informant married his daughter to Amar Patel on June 26, 2020, according to Hindu rites. It is alleged that following the marriage, the accused family members allegedly subjected her to physical torture and ill-treatment over demands for dowry. It is further alleged that on July 22, 2025, the accused persons allegedly killed her inside her matrimonial home, hanged her body from a fan, and fled the crime scene.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has no criminal antecedents and is in judicial custody since 22.07.2026. The counsel further submits that charge sheet has been filed. The counsel also submits that the petitioner is merely brother-in-law of the victim and has no role in alleged crime.

5. The learned APP for the State vehemently opposes the prayer of regular bail to the petitioner.

6. Having heard the parties and taking into consideration that charge sheet has been filed and the petitioner has clean antecedents and also the fact that the petitioner is merely brother-in-law of the victim, this Court is inclined to grant the petitioner benefit of regular bail. Let the above named petitioner, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the likewise amount each to the satisfaction of Court below/concerned Court in connection with Adapur P.S. Case No. 281 of 2025, subject to the following conditions:

(I) One of the bailors shall be the petitioner’s own or close family member.
