CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

2 04-11-2026 Heard learned Advocate for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Manjhagarh P.S. Case No. 186 of 2024, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 316(2), 318(4) of the BNS.

3. As per the allegation, the accused, Paras Prasad, without having any title to the property, has sold the land to co-accused Anwar Alam, Manir Alam, Garju Gaddi (the petitioner), Bachha Gaddi and Rajmahmad Gaddi in collusion with other accused persons.

4. Learned advocate for the petitioner submitted that he has purchased the land after paying the consideration amount to the accused Paras Prasad, who claimed title to the property in the sale deed. In view of the aforesaid fact, it is argued that no offence of any forgery or cheating is made out, inasmuch as the sale deed is genuine and there was no representation made by the accused-petitioner to the informant, nor the informant has suffered any monetary loss. The allegation, even if taken to be true for the sake of argument, predominantly appears to be civil in nature. Another co-accused person facing identical allegation has been allowed the privilege of anticipatory bail in Criminal Miscellaneous No. 10014 of 2025 vide order dated 06.03.2025, the copy of which has been produced as Annexure P/2 to the bail application.

5. On the other hand, learned advocate for the State vehemently opposed the bail application.

6. Considering the nature of accusation, which predominantly appears to be civil, besides the case of the petitioner stands on similar footing to that of Anwar Alam, who has been extended the privilege of anticipatory bail, let the petitioner abovenamed be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of
