deceased is already in judicial custody. It is further submitted that the petitioner's husband, who has also been made an accused in the same and similar incident, was taken into custody and remained in judicial custody for almost five months, whereafter he was granted regular bail vide order dated 12.10.2026 passed by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in Cr. Misc. No. 73086 of 2026. It is further submitted that there is nothing specific against the petitioner in the F.I.R. and the petitioner is ready to cooperate in the investigation. Lastly, it is submitted that the petitioner is a lady of clean antecedent.

5. Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering that the husband of the deceased is already in judicial custody, the husband of the petitioner has already been granted regular bail by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court and the fact that the petitioner is ready to cooperate in the investigation, let the petitioner, above named, be released on anticipatory bail in the event of her arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of six weeks from today on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of
