4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that as many as 12 named persons along with 40 to 50 unknown have been made an accused in the present case including the petitioners. It is further submitted that on account of some minor dispute relating to the sale in the shop, some verbal altercation took place which escalated into acts of assault. There are general and omnibus allegations against the petitioners and the specific allegation of assaulting the informant on his neck causing grievous injury is specific on co-accused Md. Rahim. The incident took place at the spur of the moment, as such, no offence under Section 109 of the B.N.S. would be attracted. There is also counter version of the case lodged by the petitioner no. 4 (Annexure-2). Further, the petitioners have no criminal antecedent and they undertake to cooperate in the investigation.

5. Learned APP for the State has opposed the application for anticipatory bail.

6. Taking into consideration the general nature of allegations and further considering the case and counter case between the parties with no specific allegations of assault on these petitioners, let the above named petitioners in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, be enlarged on bail on
