CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

2 28-10-2026 Heard learned Advocate for the petitioners and learned Advocate for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Madhuban P.S. Case No.482 of 2025 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 190, 126(2), 115(2), 303(2), 76, 352, 351(2) and 351(3) of the BNS, 2023.

3. Allegedly, on the given date and time of occurrence, while co-accused Ajay Singh forcibly taking away the cash from the pocket of the informant and, when the same was protested, he threatened him with the dire consequences. It is further alleged that on the next day, all the FIR-named accused persons armed with deadly weapons barged into the house of the informant and started abusing and assaulting him and his wife; besides, there is further allegation of misbehaviour and snatching of valuables.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioners submitted that the present case is nothing but an outcome of previous enmity on account of political rivalry, as has been explained in para-6 of the bail application. The present case is said to be the counter-blast of Madhuban P.S. Case No. 479 of 2025 registered against the informant and others. So far as the injuries which are allegedly sustained to the informant and his wife are concerned, all of them have been reported to be simple in nature. In this regard, specific averment has been made in para-9 of the bail application. Petitioner no.1 bears no criminal antecedent, whereas petitioners no. 2, 3, 4, and 6 are carrying one criminal antecedent, and petitioner no.5 is said to be accused in two criminal cases. However, they undertake that they will fully cooperate in the proceedings of the court.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State vehemently opposes the bail application and submits that there is a specific accusation against the petitioners of causing assault to the informant and his wife and snatching their valuables.

6. Considering the rival submissions advanced by learned Advocate for the respective parties and taking note of the institution of Madhuban P.S. Case No. 479 of 2025 prior to the lodging of the present case, besides the simple nature of injuries and the undertaking furnished by the petitioners, let the above named petitioners, be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned A.C.J.M.-6, East Champaran at Motihari/Successor Court in connection with Madhuban P.S. Case No.482 of 2025, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 482(2) of the BNSS, with further condition that one of the bailors shall be the own/close family members of the petitioners.
