instituted only with an intent to harass the petitioner as the informant alleges that her all educational certificates along with Aadhar card, PAN card and the vehicle, which was gifted to the petitioner at the time of marriage, have been seized by the petitioner. It is thus submitted that had what is being alleged in the instant FIR been a correct fact, in that event, the instant allegation would have formed part of the earlier FIR, i.e., Danapur PS Case No. 381 of 2023.

4. At this stage, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant submits that he has instruction not to oppose the instant anticipatory bail application of the petitioner.

5. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Danapur P.S. Case No. 1311 of 2025, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482 (2) of the BNSS.
