4. Learned Advocate for the petitioner, referring to the FIR, submitted that the reason behind the false implication of the petitioner is said to be a previous enmity in relation to vacating the shop in question. Moreover, there is a counter version of the present case being Muffasil P.S. Case No. 407 of 2026 instituted against the informant. The allegation, even if taken to be true for the sake of argument, the injury which is specifically attributed against the petitioner, on medical examination, is found to be simple in nature as is evident from the impugned order. The petitioner is carrying fair antecedent and undertakes that he will fully cooperate in the proceeding of the Court.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State vehemently opposed the bail application.

6. Considering the rival submissions advanced by learned Advocate for the respective parties and taking note of the genesis of occurrence, coupled with the simple nature of injuries and the fair antecedent of the petitioner, let the petitioner above named be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand)
