2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Paharkatta P.S. Case No. 14 of 2026 registered for the offences under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 118(1), 109(1), 352, 351(2), 303(2), 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

3. On the alleged date and time of occurrence, all the accused persons forcibly entered into the house of the informant and started abusing and assaulting. There is specific accusation against Md. of snatching and misbehaving with the female members of the informant.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioner, referring to the F.I.R., contended that, in fact, on account of a previous dispute, the members of both sides have entered into a scuffle, resulting into some unfortunate injuries. However, even if the allegation is taken to be true, for the sake of argument, no specific allegation of any overt act has been levelled against the petitioner. There is a counter version of the present case, being Paharkatta P.S. Case No. 15 of 2026 instituted against the informant and others. The petitioner is a septuagenarian, having fair antecedent, and undertakes that he will fully cooperate in the proceeding of the court.

5. On the other hand, learned APP for the State vehemently opposes the bail application.

6. Considering the nature of accusation and the fact that the petitioner is a septuagenarian, having fair antecedent, as also the factum of case and counter case, let the petitioner, named above, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with
