alleged that petitioner no. 2 assaulted her son by belt and took out Rs. 50,000/- from her pocket.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated in the instant case along with their family members. It is next submitted that petitioners are agnates and are having dispute relating to property, there is no specific allegation against petitioner no. 1 though against petitioner no. 2, it is alleged that he assaulted the son of the informant by belt and took out Rs. 50,000/- from the pocket of the informant, but then allegation of taking out Rs. 50,000/- from her pocket is an ornamental allegation and the son of the informant also did not suffer any grievous injury. It is next submitted that if privilege of anticipatory bail is granted, the petitioners will not abscond rather will cooperate in the investigation to prove their innocence.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two
