ORAL ORDER

2 04-11-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned APP for the State and learned counsel for the informant.

2. Learned counsel Mr. Md. Mobassar Ali (Enrollment No. 1856/24, AUIN-103906) initially submits before this Court that he has filed the soft copy of the vakalatnama on behalf of the informant on 02.11.2026 and in the evening hours, he has filed the hard copy also. But, today in the daily cause list, his name is not appearing.

3. Upon verification from the Court Master, it has been informed to this Court that as per the present status of the case, soft copy of the vakalatnama on behalf of the informant has been filed on 02.11.2026 by the said counsel Mr. Md. Mobassar Ali.

4. In this view of the matter, this Court hereby permits Mr. Md. Mobassar Ali, Advocate for the informant to argue in this case.

5. The petitioners apprehend arrest in connection with Shahpur Patori P.S. Case No. 216 of 2026 lodged on 02.07.2026, for the offence punishable under Sections 316(2), 318(4), 351(3) & 3(5) of the B.N.S., 2023 and sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961.

6. As per the prosecution case, FIR has been lodged against 13 named accused persons including the present petitioners and one owner of a mobile number. It has been alleged that marriage of the informant's daughter was fixed with the son of petitioner no.1 and Rs. 20 lacs by way of gift was handed over to the accused persons. Later on, the son of petitioner no.1 demanded a four wheeler and threatened that if the informant's father failed to provide the four wheeler then this marriage shall not take place.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and have committed no offence. He submits that it is true that marriage of the informant's daughter was fixed with the son of petitioner no.1, but under compelling circumstance, marriage could not take place. Counsel submits that allegation of demand of dowry etc. is not accepted and it is false, but he simultaneously submits that due to intervention of the well wishers and common relatives, matter has been settled and parties have decided not to pursue the case against each other. He further submits that the petitioners have clean antecedent.

8. Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioners.

9. Learned counsel for the informant is not opposing the prayer for bail and submits that it is true that due to intervention of the well wishers and common relatives, dispute has been resolved and both parties are not interested to pursue the case against each other.

10. As such, in the present facts and circumstances of the case, let the above-named petitioners be released on bail, in the event of arrest or surrender before the Trial Court within a period of 4 weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand) each as mentioned in Section 2(1)(d) of the B.N.S.S., 2023 to the satisfaction of A.C.J.M., Samastipur, in connection with Shahpur Patori P.S. Case No. 216 of 2026, subject to the conditions as laid down U/s 482(2) of the B.N.S.S., 2023.
