petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. Counsel further submits that nothing has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. Counsel further submits that the petitioner is the owner of the alleged E-rickshaw from which recovery has been made but the petitioner had given the same to co-accused for the purpose of plying the vehicle for carrying passengers on a daily rental basis. Counsel further submits that the petitioner was unaware about the said occurrence. Counsel also submits that antecedent of the petitioner is clean. Counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready to fulfill all the conditions whatsoever shall be imposed upon him.

5. Learned APP for the State, on the other hand, opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioner, but fairly submits that antecedent of the petitioner is clean.

6. As such, in the present facts and circumstances of this case, let the above named petitioner be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of 4 weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand) as mentioned in Section 2(1)(d) of the BNSS, 2023 to the satisfaction of Exclusive Special Excise Court No.3, East
